Impromptu speech

This year, children in Year 6 and above will take part in an impromptu speech competition. This means the topic will be given on the day, and they'll have a short time to prepare before presenting to the judges.

This competition will help children learn how to structure and present a speech, as well as practice thinking and speaking confidently with little notice.

Details:

- Topic: Given on arrival. The topic will be general and won't need any research. Outside materials are not allowed.
- Preparation Time: 90 minutes to plan, prepare, and practice before presenting.
- What We'll Provide:
 - The topic and some reading material to help
 - A brainstorming template
 - Writing paper
 - Precut cue cards
- What to Bring: Children need to bring their own pens or pencils.
